

TOUR IN THE ETERNAL CITY

A pleasant walk in the heart of Rome, a city rich of art and alleys to explore. The tour will start with the magnificent Navona Square and it will continue along Via dei Coronari, through which you will reach the imposing Castel Sant'Angelo, connected to the Vatican through the fortified corridor known as "Passetto". After crossing the bridge Sant'Angelo, the walk will continue on the border with Vatican City, in Borgo Pio, the famous Roman neighborhood full of history and anecdotes, and it will finish in St. Peter's Square, a remarkable example of baroque architecture and urban planning which, besides being admired for its architecture, is a daily meeting point for thousands of Catholic faithful from all over the world.
